In a rapidly changing world, where cultural, political, economic and social upheaval challenges traditional ways of life, education has an important role to play in promoting social cohesion and peaceful coexistence. These guidelines have been developed to contribute to the understanding of issues related to intercultural education. Part I outlines the key issues related to intercultural education, as well as its objectives and basic operating principles. Part III summarizes the international position on this issue and provides a set of three basic principles which should guide educational policies with regard to intercultural education.
